ORDER DISMISSING ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

On February 28, 2005, this Court issued an Order to Show Cause, directing the respondent to show cause why he should not be suspended from the practice of law in this state for failing to respond to the Disciplinary Commission's demand for a response to a grievance filed against him. On March 1, 2005, the Commission filed a motion to dismiss the Order to Show Cause, therein stating that the respondent complied with the Commission's demands on February 24, 2005 by personally delivering written responses that he had mailed January 20, 2005, but that had not been delivered by the U.S. Postal Service to the Commission.

This Court, being duly advised, now finds that the Commission's motion should be granted.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that this Court's Order to Show Cause issued in this matter on February 28, 2005, is hereby dismissed as moot.

The Clerk of this Court is directed to forward notice of this Order to the respondent or his attorney and to the Indiana Supreme Court Disciplinary Commission.

DONE at Indianapolis, Indiana, this _____ day of March, 2005.
